International Day FOR THE ELIMINATION OF Violence Against Women

Women's rights activists have observed 25 November as a day against gender-based violence since 1981. This date was selected to honour the Mirabal sisters, three political activists from the Dominican Republic who were brutally murdered in 1960 by order of the country's ruler, Rafael Trujillo (1930-1961).

International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women Guest Lecture Report

Date: 25th November 2024

Mode: Online

Platform: Google Meet

Time: 11:00 PM- 12:30PM

Topic: "Empowering Voices, Ending Violence: A Call to Action for Women and Girls "

Eminent Speaker: Ms. Monika Sabharwal (Founder & CEO, SPSR Periodicals Pvt. Ltd, National Secretary, SPSR)

On 25th November 2024, Gautam College of Pharmacy, Hamirpur, organized an insightful and thought-provoking online guest lecture to commemorate the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women. The event featured Mrs. Monika Sabharwal, a renowned advocate for women's rights, as the keynote speaker.

The lecture commenced with a warm welcome by the Mrs. Poonam Talwan (HOD Pharmaceutical Chemistry), highlighting the significance of the day. Mrs. Sabharwal, with her extensive experience in advocating against gender-based violence, delivered an engaging session. She emphasized the global prevalence of violence against women, the deep-rooted societal norms perpetuating it, and the urgent need for collective action.

Key highlights of the session included:

- Statistics and Global Perspective: Mrs. Sabharwal presented alarming statistics showcasing the extent of violence against women worldwide, emphasizing its detrimental impact on individuals and communities.
- Legal Frameworks and Support Systems: She elaborated on the legal measures available in India to combat violence against women, such as the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act (2005) and the importance of reporting crimes.
- Role of Educational Institutions: Mrs. Sabharwal urged students and educators to foster a safe and inclusive environment that empowers women.
- Call for Action: She inspired attendees to become advocates for change, challenging societal stereotypes and promoting gender equality.

The session concluded with a dynamic Q&A segment, where students and faculty actively participated, seeking solutions to practical challenges faced by women. Mrs. Sabharwal's
