Introduction:

World COPD Day is an annual event organized by the Global Initiative for Chronic Obstructive Lung Disease (GOLD) to raise awareness about Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) and to promote better understanding and management of the condition. This year's theme was "Your Lungs, Your Life," focusing on the importance of lung health and the impact of COPD on individuals and communities. An online lecture was organized to educate participants on the latest research, treatment options, and lifestyle modifications that can help manage COPD effectively. The event witnessed participation from students, faculty members.

Inaugural Session:

Lecture began at 1:30 PM with welcome speech by Ms. Neha Rani, followed by a brief introduction to World COPD Day and its theme. Secretary Dr. Rajneesh Gautam, Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Kumar (Director cum Principal, GCOP) were also Joined this online session.

Lecture by Dr. Bhupendra Chauhan:

Key Highlights:

1. Patient Testimonials

Patients shared their personal experiences with COPD, discussing challenges faced and strategies that have helped them manage their condition. These stories highlighted the importance of support systems and adherence to treatment plans.

2. Health Screenings

Free spirometry tests were offered to attendees to assess lung function. Participants received educational materials about COPD and smoking cessation resources.

3. Interactive QA Session

A panel of experts answered questions from participants regarding the latest research, treatment options, and coping strategies for living with COPD.

4. Awareness Campaigns

Distribution of brochures and informational materials about COPD prevention and management.

Social media campaigns using hashtags like #WorldCOPDDay and #YourLungsYourLife to reach a broader audience.

Conclusion

The online lecture for World COPD Day successfully raised awareness about COPD, provided valuable insights into management strategies, and encouraged collaboration among healthcare professionals and patients. Participants expressed gratitude for the informative sessions and emphasized the need for continued education and support in managing this chronic condition.

Key Takeaways:

Consider organizing follow-up workshops or support groups for ongoing education.

Develop resource materials summarizing key points from the lecture for distribution to participants.

Encourage collaboration with local health organizations to promote awareness campaigns.
